Get the Blessing: Bugs in Amber

(Candid) £12.72

Get the Blessing's second album begins with a wailing siren before the drummer Clive Deamer kicks off the thunderous riff of "Music Style Product". Pete Judge's powerful, punctuating trumpet squalls and Jake McMurchie's geometric sax all converge around the jagged angles of Jim Barr's bass baritone guitar. Tracks such as "Einstein Action Figures" and "Yes I Said Yes I Will" confirm Get the Blessing as the heavyweights of the contemporary jazz scene. ★★★
